Endowment to the Someswaraswami temple near Mulbagal.

Summary of discussion.—The ancient and famous temple of Someswaraswami at Someswarapalya near Kasba Mulbagal, has greatly deteriorated owing to the resumption long ago, of the Inam villages assigned for worship and maintenance, and no arrangement exists even to sweep the building and keep it clean. The small monthly allowance of Rs. 1-7-11 paid to the Archik by Government is inadequate, even for daily worship. The temple should be endowed with an annual grant of Rs. 100 in cash or in land which, supplemented by contributions from votaries may be utilized for the necessary Utsavams and for the maintenance of the buildings in decent condition. The temple of Sriprasanna Vithal Narainswami at Kasba Mulbagal is also in need of Government help, the monthly allowance of Rs. 4-5-11 paid to the Archik being insufficient for the necessary expenses. This temple should likewise be endowed with an annual grant of Rs. 100 in cash or in land.

Dewan's reply.—Impracticable.
